DELINQUENT TAXPAYER NAMES WILL BE LISTED ON INTERNET

Beginning July 1, 2004, the Department will be required to publish on the Internet a list of names of taxpayers who have tax warrants. This website called INdebt will contain the names of both corporations and individuals who have had one or more tax warrants outstanding for at least two years and owe $1,000 or more on each warrant.

The Internet list will be updated monthly, and taxpayers with delinquent warrants who qualify for the listing will be notified at least two weeks before their warrants are posted. Initially, the Department estimates, some 29,000 taxpayers will be listed unless their liabilities are satisfied beforehand.

The first notices of the pending posting to the Internet were mailed to taxpayers affected by this new legislation at their last known addresses during the week of May 17, 2004. The notices state that the taxpayers' warrant information, including total amount due, will be published on the Internet, along with their names and addresses. The final notices are required per statute (HEA 1365, IC 6-8.1-3-16 (j) (k) (l),

NEW SALES TAX LAWS PASSED

As a result of new legislation affecting Indiana sales tax passed by this year's Indiana General Assembly, the Indiana Department of Revenue sent out over 170,000 notices of the changes to all Indiana registered retail merchants.

The new laws affect some ten different areas of state sales taxation, including delivery charges, installation charges, complimentary rooms, utility services, and telecommunication services. Also affected are satellite TV/radio services, vehicles, bad debts, retail merchant registration and the Department's responsibility regarding industry classification codes.

New taxable items/services include

HATS OFF TO HOOSIERS!

Indiana taxpayers who donate a portion of their state tax refunds to the Nongame and Wildlife Fund are helping Indiana's Wildlife Diversity Program more than they realize. Donations listed on IT-40 tax returns (Line 32 of the 2003 IT-40, Line 29 of the IT-40PNR, and Line 15 of the IT-40EZ) go directly to the protection and management of more than 550 wildlife species in Indiana.

Statistics from the 2002 returns indicate that $387,264 was donated from 29,537 returns. The 2003 returns processed as of April 2004 report $265,974 donated on 20,649 returns.

ONLINE FORMS ORDERING COMING SOON!

BREAKING NEWS

FREE, ONLINE ORDERING SERVICE FOR CURRENT YEAR TAX FORMS PLANNED FOR FALL

Later this year, and in plenty of time for the 2004 tax filing season, the Indiana Department of Revenue invites Indiana tax practitioners to participate in an online pilot project for tax forms ordering.

Letters from the Department to practitioners are planned for fall, explaining how the new, more convenient, efficient and cost effective project will work. And, of course, it will mean much shorter turnaround time for both practitioners and their clients.

With the new system, customers will be able to go to the electronic forms ordering page of the Department's web site and order whatever current-year forms are needed. There will be no handling or postage fees for this service.

(Persons ordering 10 or fewer copies of items will be asked to download those forms from the Department's web site.)

Gone will be the days of having to telephone the Department or mailing in an FOR-1 form. However, traditional forms ordering methods will continue to be available.

Practitioners who have established accounts with the Department will use their current account numbers. New customers registering will be assigned account numbers.

Orders of over 10 forms will be available with the online ordering system, and prompts will assist the customer along the way.

Online form orders for taxable year 2004 may be made as early as October 1, 2004. However, the forms will not be mailed out until after December 1.

Each year this service is used, the number of forms ordered the previous year will be indicated to help customers determine quantities needed for the upcoming year. However, it is anticipated that the number of paper tax returns will continue to decrease each year, as an ever increasing number are filed electronically.

regardless of what notices have been sent previously.

Indiana is not the first state to take this step. In fact, numerous other states either have already, or are seriously considering, posting the names of their delinquent taxpayers on the Internet as a matter of public record. Once a tax warrant is issued in Indiana, the debt becomes public information in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

Many questions are answered regarding INdebt on the Department's web site at www.IN.gov/dor. This web address will also be the site used when the first warrants are posted July 1.
